

Premier Plastic Surgery Center of New Jersey

Q: For women who are looking to get their body back after pregnancy what would your advice be?

A: Brian S. Glatt, MD, FACS a Board Certified Plastic Surgeon, has developed a sterling reputation for bringing the highest level of technical expertise, service and care to the cosmetic and reconstructive surgery experience. Dr. Glatt specializes in post-pregnancy plastic surgery procedures, performed separately or in combination as a "mommy makeover". These include tummy tuck, liposuction, breast lift and/or augmentation. Non-surgical options may include CoolSculpting.
